Non-Profit General Information

The Market, at its sole discretion, may occasionally offer a free space to a non-profit group. Priority will generally be given to farm and health initiatives. To be considered for use of this free space, you must fill out and submit this application. Please remember, we receive a very high volume of requests for these spaces and we are not able to accommodate all requests. Product and other market rules and regulations still apply to non-profit groups, so please read the available information carefully.

Please circle ONLY dates that you want to participate in the Market. These dates are not guaranteed, you will be notified, via email, the week prior to Market day if you are selected for that week.
